THE COLOUR RED

Fashion Mags, Haute Couture and Cosmetic Companies have been trying for many years to push the colour red and for this winter especially. Though sheer lips dominate the fashion scene at present, there are women with a passion for fashion.

Ali Hamylton has Bessette, the signature colour for Carolyn Bessette, & Giles, both beautiful matt satin reds.

We have a strawberry red in lipgloss – Bacci - which is still the makeup artists' favourite.

Finally, there's Enza, which is a striking full bodied satin red in a tube. Our unique formula makes it glide on easily. As an added bonus, your teeth look whiter due to the blue base in this collection of stunning reds.

For the women who are into the colour red we have some advice. When applying lipstick it must be perfect. Start with a sharp Bungle Red lip pencil.

Ali's Tips:

To create a fuller lip, simply curve your lip line outwards from the centre peaks to the outer corner.

To avoid the lipstick on teeth syndrome, purse lips and run your index finger in and out of your mouth.

For a really new lip shape, always use our foundation brushed over lips before drawing in your preferred shape.

LIPSTICK COMBOS

I thought it might be interesting to ask some of our distributors for their most creative lip combinations.

Irene Maxwell from Western Australia loves the Garnet pencil outline with Astrid and Matilda over the top.

In Tasmania, Rosanne combines this interesting arrangement - Garnet pencil, then Glaze followed by Shirl.

Sigtific's Lorraine Bader wears Garnet and Jarra whilst Kristy from Beautopia combines Pebble with Flossi.

And for a bride, Judy of Sunstate came up with 'I defined the lip line with Garnet lip pencil and blended down well over the entire lip for a very soft look. Filled lightly with Molly lipstick for depth then a layer of Lulu lipgloss to soften the look. Lastly a layer of Flosi lip gloss. Wow! The overall effect was a soft juicy watermelon pink. Yummy!
